Open Position
Research Analyst/Fellow – Fiscal Policy (80-100%)

CEP is an international nonprofit nonpartisan economic policy think tank for sustainability with a focus on fiscal, monetary and trade policy. We formulate and promote economic policy solutions that strengthen individual opportunity, social cohesion and environmental stability.

Our work is driven by the conviction that changes to economic policies are vital for sustainability. Whether governments align fiscal policy with a sustainability agenda, whether central banks integrate social and environmental considerations into their decisions and whether trade agreements account for their effects on climate change, employment and public services has significant ramifications for people and the planet.

Our Fiscal Policy team is seeking a Research Analyst or Fellow for CEP’s engagement on tax expenditures. The selected candidate will support the operation and expansion of the Global Tax Expenditures Database (GTED) and contribute to further key pillars of CEP’s activities to increase transparency and promote the reforms of tax expenditures worldwide.

Profile

- Academic Background
  - A university degree or equivalent in economics or related fields (required)
  - A post-graduate degree (desirable)

- Professional Background
  - Strong research, analytical and writing skills with a focus on detail and delivery (required)
  - Knowledge of economic policy, in particular tax policy (highly desirable)
  - Good understanding and experience working with policymakers and international stakeholders (desirable)
  - Knowledge and proven application of econometric methods (desirable)
  - Experience in a similar role, preferably in an international environment (desirable)

- Tools
  - Strong knowledge of data visualization tools (highly desirable)
  - Proficiency in the use of statistical analysis tools such as Stata, Python, or R (desirable)

- Languages
  - Fluency in English (required)
  - Knowledge of other languages (highly desirable)
The role will be filled at the Research Analyst or Fellow level, depending on the candidate’s profile and level of experience.

The position is based in our office in Zurich. Applications are open to holders of a valid Swiss working permit or EU/EFTA member state citizens who may enter, live, and work in Switzerland.

To apply, please send us a motivation letter and CV to getinvolved@cepweb.org and specify the role for which you are applying on the email subject.

Interviews for the position will start in January. The new team-member can start working as soon as February or upon arrangement.

We look forward to hearing from you.